Armoury, the Orchard Road steakhouse built around shared 500g and 1kg steaks, serves its last meals at Orchard Central on Sunday 29 November. Its next restaurant, at #03-13A/14 Landmark Orchard, opens to the public on 12 December 2026. Between those two dates there is no Armoury to book in Singapore.

The move follows the refurbishment of Orchard Central. The Straits Times reported in July that tenants from levels 5 to 12 were to vacate by the end of November, with some of the upper floors planned for office use. Armoury has been on level 11, above Somerset MRT, and it has been in Singapore since 2016.

The last weekend at Orchard Central

The restaurant at 181 Orchard Road, #11-03, keeps its usual weekend hours to the end: 11.30am to 11pm on Friday and Saturday, and 11.30am to 10pm on Sunday. The kitchen takes last orders at 9.30pm. Reservations go through the Armoury website, or by WhatsApp on 8905 2515.

The steak buffet is still on at Orchard Central this Saturday and Sunday, at S$58++ for adults. Saturday lunch runs from 11.30am with last orders at 2.30pm, and dinner from 5pm with last orders at 6.45pm. Sunday lunch is the same, with dinner last orders at 9.30pm.

The BIG CUT Feast for Two is not on this weekend. That S$100++ meal, a 500g Australian Black Angus ribeye with two sides and either two pints of lager, two glasses of wine or one molten lava cake, runs Monday to Thursday only, so Thursday 26 November was its final night at Orchard Central. Whether it carries on at Landmark Orchard is not yet known.

The free corkage policy still applies for the last few services. One bottle comes in free for every bottle bought, or with a minimum spend of S$60++ a head. Otherwise corkage is S$25++ a bottle.

What to order before Sunday

The steaks are the reason to go. The BIG CUT range on the current Armoury menu, at the time of writing, runs like this:

- Australia Black Angus Ribeye, 500g: S$80
- USDA Prime Ribeye, 500g: S$135
- A5 Miyazaki Wagyu Ribeye, 600g: S$180
- A5 Kagoshima Wagyu Striploin, 600g: S$200
- KILO USDA Prime Ribeye, 1kg: S$240
- KILO A5 Miyazaki Wagyu Ribeye, 1kg: S$280

Armoury pitches the 500g and 600g cuts at two people and the 1kg KILO at four to six. For a pair, the S$80 Black Angus ribeye is the sensible order. The A5 cuts are for a birthday or a last hurrah. The two KILO prices are subject to service charge and GST.

Solo steaks start at S$30 for a 170g MB4+ Australian Angus striploin and go up to S$78 for a 200g A5 Kagoshima Wagyu striploin. Truffle Kombu Fries, Bacon Mac and Cheese and the Sake Clam Bowl are S$18 each. The molten lava cake with vanilla ice cream is S$15, and the burgers sit at S$28 to S$30.

What changes at Landmark Orchard

The new address is 501 Orchard Road, #03-13A/14, Singapore 238880, in the mall that used to be called Wheelock Place. It sits next to the Orchard MRT interchange on the North-South and Thomson-East Coast lines.

Beer gets a bigger role. Landmark Orchard will have five beers on tap all year: BREWLANDERâ??s Freedom Lager, Joy Session IPA and Love IPA, a rotating BREWLANDER beer, and Sapporo Black Lager.

The steak buffet also moves across, at a higher price. From 12 December it runs at Landmark Orchard on Saturdays, Sundays, Mondays, Tuesdays and public holidays, at S$68++ for adults and S$40++ for children aged 6 to 12, at the time of writing. It is free-flow 200g MB2+ Australian Angus ribeye with unlimited sides such as greens, chicken karaage, fries, onion rings, mashed potatoes and mac and cheese. Sessions last 90 minutes. Every two diners can add one 500g Australian Black Angus ribeye BIG CUT for S$5 more.

Buffet lunch starts at 11.30am with last orders at 2.30pm. Dinner starts at 5pm, with last orders at 6.45pm on Saturdays and 9.30pm on Sundays, Mondays, Tuesdays and public holidays.
