

1887 by Andr   at Raffles: What to Know Before Booking

Description

1887 by Andr   opened in April 2026 at Raffles Singapore. The official page positions it as Andr   Chiang  s interpretation of hotel history and currently states a minimum age of 12, with S$200 per person charged for cancellations or no-shows within 72 hours.

Start with the decision table

Situation	Decision signal
Guest is under 12	The current age policy makes this unsuitable
Plans may change within three days	Cancellation exposure is material
Dietary restriction matters	Ask before booking; the format may have limits
You want a casual walk-in	Check another venue
The occasion values narrative fine dining	Review the current menu and meal period

This is a planner, not a review

We have not dined there and make no first-hand taste or service claim. Raffles Andr   Chiang feature establishes opening and concept context.

Read the live meal period

Raffles 1887 by Andr   page publishes current hours and booking access. Choose lunch or dinner only after checking the selected date.

Cancellation exposure is substantial

At S$200 per person, four guests create S$800 exposure inside 72 hours. Confirm the party before reserving.

Ask precise dietary questions

Name the allergy, cross-contact concern and affected guest. A menu description is not an allergen declaration.

Set expectations around the concept

Diners seeking speed, young-child flexibility or À la carte certainty should verify the current format.

Worked application

Four guests multiplied by the stated S$200 cancellation/no-show charge equals S$800 potential exposure inside 72 hours. Put the final confirmation point before that window and record dietary responses.

Action checklist

1. Open the current menu
2. Confirm guests are at least 12
3. Ask dietary questions
4. Read live hours
5. Understand cancellation terms
6. Set a party deadline
7. Keep written responses

Keep a decision record another person can audit

The reader task is specific: decide whether the format and booking conditions suit the occasion. Create a short file showing the controlling fact, when it was checked, the evidence retained and who owns the next action. A changed date, amount, person, address, service screen or eligibility result can alter the outcome even when the broad rule stays the same.

#	Control	Evidence	Failure signal
1	Open the current menu	Authority readback	Calling this a review
2	Confirm guests are at least 12	Dated statement or screen	Ignoring age policy
3	Ask dietary questions	Calculation inputs	Assuming every restriction is accommodated
4	Read live hours	Written approval	Booking an uncertain party

#	Control	Evidence	Failure signal
5	Understand cancellation terms	Receipt or reference	Quoting an old menu
6	Set a party deadline	Photo or versioned document	Calling this a review
7	Keep written responses	Outcome check	Ignoring age policy

The two original tools in this guide—a four-guest cancellation calculation and an age, diet and format suitability screen—do different jobs. The first structures the choice; the second tests it against a concrete case. Neither should be copied into another case without refreshing every input and recording the extraction date.

What the primary sources establish

Source	Claim used	Freshness control
Raffles 1887 by Andr�� page	Concept, hours, age policy, menu and cancellation terms.	Checked 2026-07-18; re-open before acting
Raffles Andr�� Chiang feature	April 2026 opening and creative context.	Checked 2026-07-18; re-open before acting

These sources are linked beside the claims they support. If a live service, formal notice, contract or officer's written response differs from a general page, keep both and ask which newer fact or rule produces the difference. Do not choose the more convenient answer without resolving that conflict.

For adjacent questions, continue with our Singapore dining planner and family event planner. Each serves a separate next-step intent.

Run a final verification before committing

Start with the first decision signal in the table: Guest is under 12. Confirm whether the present facts really support the current age policy makes this unsuitable. Then test the opposite edge case: The occasion values narrative fine dining because that is where an apparently simple plan can fail. Write the answer in plain language and attach the dated evidence; do not leave an unspoken assumption in a spreadsheet cell.

Next, ask another adult or colleague to reproduce the worked application without seeing the result. Give that person only the source links and inputs. If the answer changes, identify whether the difference comes from arithmetic, definition, timing or judgement. Recalculate using the live figure, retain both versions and state why the later one controls. This check is especially important when the choice depends on Raffles 1887 by Andr   page and Raffles Andr   Chiang feature.

Finally, rehearse the first three actions—open the current menu; confirm guests are at least 12; ask dietary questions—and set a stop point before any payment, filing, booking, upload or irreversible instruction. The stop point is reached if a required approval is absent, a source has changed, the named person cannot confirm the facts, or the downside in â??calling this a reviewâ?• is still possible. This makes the guide usable under pressure and gives the next person enough context to continue without guessing.

Errors that change the outcome

- Calling this a review
- Ignoring age policy
- Assuming every restriction is accommodated
- Booking an uncertain party
- Quoting an old menu

Keep the dated authority pages, calculation inputs, confirmations and advice used for the decision. This article applies public information to a general fact pattern and does not determine an individual application, contract, tax position, medical need or legal dispute. Recheck the primary source immediately before acting.
