Jackâ??s Place $6 Weekday Lunch: The long-running Western restaurant chain is offering its weekday set lunch from $6 onwards at selected outlets. The promotion runs Monday to Friday from 11.30am to 3pm and is perfect for office workers tired of hawker centres.

1-for-1 Buffet Spreads: Several hotel buffets, including those at Carousel at Royal Plaza on Scotts and Lime at PARKROYAL COLLECTION Marina Bay, are running 1-for-1 lunch and dinner buffet promotions through the Chope app and various credit card deals. Banking And Finance Offers

State Bank of India Singapore Fixed Deposit Rates: SBI Singapore has revised its fixed deposit rates upward, with promotional rates of 3.25 per cent per annum for six-month tenures and 3.10 per cent for 12-month tenures, subject to a minimum placement of S$20,000. The rates are among the highest currently advertised by retail banks in Singapore, although customers should note that SBI deposits are insured up to $100,000 per depositor under the Singapore Deposit Insurance Corporation scheme. Rate promotions typically last a few weeks, so lock in before they revise downward.

DBS And UOB Credit Card Rebates: DBS Live Fresh cardholders earn 10 per cent cashback on online shopping and food delivery categories this month, capped at $75, while UOB One cardholders continue to enjoy up to $300 quarterly cash rebates when they hit the minimum spend of $2,000 across three consecutive months. Both cards remain popular choices for Singaporeans looking to maximise everyday rewards without paying hefty annual fees.

Tips For Making The Most Of These Deals

With so many promotions running simultaneously, savvy shoppers should prioritise deals with the shortest validity windows first. Bazaars and warehouse sales typically offer the steepest discounts but end within days, while food app deals often refresh weekly. Stack credit card promotions with merchant discounts where possible, and always check terms and conditions for blackout dates or exclusions.
