Singapore International Piano Festival 2026 returns from 2 to 5 July at Victoria Concert Hall, with Conrad Tao, Churen Li, Hyung-Ki Joo, Jonathan Shin, Sean Chen and Jon Kimura Parker in the 32nd edition.

Why This Edition Is Worth Noting

The festival is built around concentrated solo-piano listening over consecutive evenings, which makes it different from a single gala concert. Pianist Albert Tiu steps in as artistic director for this edition.

How To Choose A Night

New listeners should pick the pianist or programme that feels approachable. Serious listeners can use the consecutive-night format to compare tone, pacing and repertoire across artists.
