Google Pixel 11 Singapore holiday deals are live on the Google Store until 11 December 2026, and there is a physical pop-up on Orchard Road where you can pick up an extra 15 per cent code. The Pixel 11 starts from S$1,299, and buying one brings up to S$200 in Google Store credit. Other Pixel phones, the Pixel Watch 5 and Pixel Buds get instant rebates on top.

Here is what is on offer, what the fine print says, and who should actually bother queueing.

Google Pixel 11 Singapore holiday deals: the numbers

All prices below come from the Google Store Singapore pages. The base Pixel 11 does not get a straight instant rebate. Instead, Google lists up to S$200 of Google Store credit for your next purchase when you buy one.

The rest of the range gets money off at the checkout:

- Pixel 11 Pro 256GB: S$80 off (512GB S$90 off, 1TB S$120 off)
- Pixel 11 Pro XL 256GB: S$90 off (512GB S$100 off, 1TB S$130 off)
- Pixel 11 Pro Fold, all variants: S$160 off
- Pixel 10a: S$60 off
- Pixel Watch 5 (41mm or 45mm): S$60 off
- Pixel Buds Pro 2: S$40 off, and Pixel Buds 2a: S$30 off

Google also lists rebates on Fitbit devices, from S$38 off the Inspire 3 to S$68 off the Sense 2 and Versa 4. Delivery is free islandwide.

New users also get three months of YouTube Premium with the Pixel 11, subject to eligibility and exclusions.

How the 15 per cent pop-up code works

The sweetener is a pop-up exclusive code worth 15 per cent off. It is stackable with selected Google Store offers, so it sits on top of the instant rebates above. Run the maths on the entry phone: 15 per cent off S$1,299 comes to roughly S$1,104 before any store credit.

The code covers the Pixel 11, 11 Pro, 11 Pro XL, 11 Pro Fold, Pixel Watch 5 and the two Pixel Buds models. It does not cover everything, so check the list before you plan a bundle.

The terms are strict, and worth reading before you head down:

1. The code is handed out at the Google Pixel Space, not online.
2. It is valid from 20 November to 11 December 2026 (23:59 SGT), or until the first 2,000 redemptions run out.
3. You must be a Singapore resident aged 18 or above, with a Singapore shipping address.
4. You redeem it on Google Store Singapore while signed in to a Google account, with a payment method added. Guest checkout does not work.
5. Only one code per transaction, and it is not transferable.

Because it is first come, first served, the weekend crowd matters. Weekday mornings are the sensible bet, if your schedule allows.

Visiting the Pixel Space on Orchard Road

The pop-up runs from 20 November to 6 December 2026 on Orchard Road, right outside Mandarin Gallery. It opens daily from 10am to 10pm, with last entry at 9.30pm. The nearest MRT is Somerset, a short walk away.

Inside there is an interactive Gemini demo zone, a photobooth, and a spot to try the 120x Pro Zoom claimed on the higher-end Pixels. Limited-edition merch is part of the draw too. Note the pop-up closes on 6 December, five days before the code and rebates expire, so you cannot collect the code after that date.

What you get with the Pixel 11

Google says the Pixel 11 runs on the new Tensor G6 chip with a Titan M3 security chip, and has a 48MP main camera with a 30x Super Zoom. The display is a 3,000-nit panel under Gorilla Glass Victus 2, and Google quotes more than 30 hours of battery life.

It also promises seven years of OS and security updates. For anyone who keeps phones for years, that long support window is the strongest part of the sell, more than any single camera trick. Magic Capture, which records a clip and photos then auto-edits a shareable set, is the headline camera feature.

If your budget is tighter, the Pixel 10a gets S$60 off, which is the cheapest way into the family from this list. Pixel Watch 5 owners should note the S$60 rebate applies to both sizes.

Is it worth it versus other phone sales?

It depends on what you were going to buy anyway. Black Friday week is crowded with phone promotions, and some are richer on headline cash. Compare with the Samsung Black Friday S26 Ultra deal, the Xiaomi 18 Pro Max offer and the vivo V80 pricing before you commit.

Pixel wins if you want clean software, the long update promise and Googleâ??s AI features. The catch is the code: it is capped at 2,000 redemptions and requires a trip to Orchard Road. If you cannot make it, the instant rebates and store credit still apply online without the code.

Always confirm the final price at checkout, since offers are subject to the Google Store terms and stock.
