IKEA Family price offers in Singapore this November include a MALM dressing table at S$99 instead of S$169, valid until 30 November 2026 or while stock lasts. A LINDBYN mirror is S$29.90 and GINSTMOTT curtains are S$34.90 over the same window. These are listed on IKEA Singaporeâ??s offers page, with the dates printed next to each price.

The IKEA Family price offers that end on 30 November

These three are the November-dated items on the offers page when we checked on 27 November 2026. Each is tagged â??IKEA Family priceâ?•, so you need to be a member to get the lower figure.

- MALM dressing table, white, 120Ã?41 cm: S$99, down from S$169 (41% off, save S$70). Valid 1 to 30 November 2026 or while stock lasts.
- LINDBYN mirror, gold-colour, 50 cm: S$29.90, down from S$39.90 (25% off, save S$10). Valid 1 to 30 November 2026 or while stock lasts.
- GINSTMOTT curtains, 1 pair, beige with eyelets, 145Ã?250 cm: S$34.90, down from S$39.90 (12% off, save S$5). Valid 28 August to 30 November 2026 or while stock lasts.

The MALM is the standout, since S$70 off is the biggest saving of the lot. A dressing table, mirror and pair of curtains together come to S$163.80 at the member prices, against S$248.80 at regular prices.

Do the sums before you rush. The curtain discount is the smallest at 12 per cent, so it is worth buying only if you need a pair anyway. The mirror is a quiet bargain at S$10 off, since it is a small, easy item to fit into a hallway or bedroom. The MALM, at 120 cm wide, suits a narrow wall or a bedroom corner where a full wardrobe would not fit.

How to claim the IKEA Family price

The price is for IKEA Family members, so sign up before you check out if you are not one already. IKEA says membership is open to everyone, and it also unlocks monthly food deals at its restaurants and food markets. Stock is limited on every listing, and each price is only valid while stock lasts.

The offers page shows items available for delivery. IKEAâ??s delivery service starts from S$10 and goes up to S$35, with delivery in 3 to 5 days according to the site, so order soon if you want a November price on something bulky. Assembly is available as a separate service.

Payment, returns and in-store extras

IKEA lists 0% interest instalment plans and Atome as payment options, plus a 365-day return policy. That return window is useful if a dressing table turns out to be the wrong size for the bedroom.

The same page also points to in-store only special prices and multibuy bundles, which are separate from the online Family prices. Those vary by store, so check with your nearest branch.
