How to get the Kiri x Monchhichi stickers

The mechanic is simple. Buy any two Kiri Cheesecake Cubes or The Laughing Cow Cheez Dipper Solo at participating 7-Eleven stores, and you can redeem one free Kiri x Monchhichi sticker set. There are two sets to collect, handed out at random, so each redemption is a small surprise. Stocks are limited.

Stickers made for phones, laptops and water bottles

The sticker designs take their cues from the three cheesecake flavours, blending Kiriâ??s colourful look with Monchhichiâ??s nostalgic charm. They are meant to be stuck on everyday items such as laptops, notebooks, phone cases and water bottles.

What are Kiri Cheesecake Cubes?

Kiri Cheesecake Cubes are soft, individually wrapped cheesecake bites inspired by well-loved desserts. The flavours are Strawberry Fraisier, Raspberry Tart and Lemon Tart, and they can be eaten straight from the pack.

For a little more effort, the brand suggests topping a cube on a biscuit for a quick â??1 Second Cheesecakeâ?•, or freezing it for a DIY ice cream pop.

Our take

It is an easy snack-plus-collectible offer, and the 7-Eleven redemption keeps it convenient. If you like cheese-themed Monchhichi goodies, see our earlier piece on the Laughing Cow x Monchhichi keychains, and for more convenience-store treats, check our 7-Eleven ice cream deals roundup.
