

Nintendo pop-up store Singapore at VivoCity, 1 to 27 December 2026: exclusive tees and a free postcard at S$100

Description

default watermark

The Nintendo pop-up store Singapore fans have been waiting for opens at VivoCity on Tuesday 1 December 2026 and stays until Sunday 27 December. It sells merchandise that is normally only available at Nintendoâ??s own stores in Japan, plus Singapore-exclusive T-shirt designs. If you shop for gamers at Christmas, this is a one-stop lobang.

Here is what we know from Nintendoâ??s official Singapore page, including where to find it, what you get for spending big and the rules on the freebies.

Nintendo pop-up store Singapore: dates, hours and location

- Dates: Tuesday 1 December to Sunday 27 December 2026
- Where: Level 1, Central Court, VivoCity (1 HarbourFront Walk; the mall connects to HarbourFront MRT)
- Hours: 10am to 10pm daily
- Operated by: Benelic Singapore Co., Pte. Ltd.

Nintendo calls it a limited-time store, and it also says it will close earlier if stock runs out. Weekends and the days leading up to Christmas will likely be busiest, so a weekday afternoon is the safer bet.

Source: Nintendo

What is on the shelves

Nintendo says the store carries merchandise from Super Mario, Animal Crossing, The Legend of Zelda, Splatoon and Pikmin. These items are described as sold only at official Nintendo stores in Japan, so this is the first time many Singapore fans can pick them up without a flight.

The line-up pictures on the official page give a good idea of the mood. There are Mario and Luigi snowmen and a Yoshi decoration for the festive season, Pikmin mugs and small square plates in bright colours, and Zelda items such as an ocarina, a notebook and pouch set, and metal charms. Nintendo adds that all items are subject to availability and may change, and the page does not publish prices, so check the shelf tags in store.

Source: Nintendo

Singapore-exclusive T-shirts

The headline item is a set of Singapore Exclusive T-shirt designs, tagged â??Available First at VivoCityâ?• on Nintendoâ??s page. The artwork shows a black Super Mario tee with a grid of power-up icons, alongside smaller designs in sky blue, navy, mint and red. Nintendo notes that images are for illustration and the actual products may vary.

â??Available firstâ?• suggests the designs may travel later, but Nintendo has not said so. If you want a particular size or colour, go early in the run.

Source: Nintendo

The S$100 postcard and the sticker campaign

Two freebies are worth planning around, and both have conditions.

- Special postcard: free if you spend S$100 or more in a single transaction. It is one card per transaction, and different receipts cannot be combined.

- Check-in sticker: if you check in with your Nintendo Account at the venue, you get one sticker per person per day, chosen at random from 18 designs.

To claim a sticker, log into your registered account, then show the QR code that appears on the tablet at the store entrance. Staff verify it before handing the sticker over. Both freebies end when stock runs out, so do not leave them to the last weekend.

How to get the most out of it

Pool your gift shopping into one bill if you can, since receipts cannot be combined for the postcard. Log into your Nintendo Account before you reach the queue, so the check-in goes quickly. Collecting all 18 stickers means repeat visits on different days, and the random draw means swaps with friends are probably your best route to a full set.

VivoCity is easy to pair with other plans. We covered a 1-for-1 sotbap deal at VivoCity that ended on 30 November, and if you are chasing more year-end shopping, the Isetan Black Friday sale runs to 29 November. For another fan-merch run this season, see our guide to the JISOO CLICK pop-up at Marina Bay Sands.

default watermark

Updates and stock news are posted on the storeâ??s Instagram, @nintendopopupsg2026. Opening hours, items and campaigns can change, so check there before you make a special trip.

Date Created
27/11/2026
Author
nuraisyah