

7-Eleven ice cream deals: Wallâ??s Butterbear 3 for S$6 and Magnum 3 for S$10 until 17 November

Description

The 7-Eleven ice cream deals that started on 4 November 2026 are the kind that make a quick stop for a drink turn into a freezer raid. Three Wallâ??s Butterbear Toy Cups now cost S$6 instead of S$14.70, and any three Magnum sticks go for S$10. The Icy Treats promotion runs until 17 November 2026, alongside a fresh round of S$1 drinks and snacks and some early Christmas sweets.

Everything below comes from 7-Eleven Singaporeâ??s own posters, website and Instagram. Availability varies by store and it is while stocks last, so the earlier in the fortnight you go, the better your odds.

7-Eleven ice cream deals: the best buys

The headline offer is the Wallâ??s Butterbear Toy Cup (90ml), the milk butter cookie cup with the bear on the lid. It usually costs S$4.90 each, so three for S$6 works out to S$2 a cup and a 59% saving. If you have a Butterbear fan at home, this is the lobang to grab.

Magnum is the other big one. Three sticks in assorted flavours (80ml to 120ml) cost S$10, down from S$4.70 each, which is about S$3.33 a stick. The poster features Almond, Matcha Crumble and Dubai Pistachio & Kunafa, with the Dubai flavour flagged as a 7-Eleven exclusive.

The HÃ¤agen-Dazs Crispy Sandwich at S$4 is a 42% cut and probably the best single-serve indulgence on the list. Ben & Jerryâ??s fans who want a full pint should still compare with the supermarket pint deals we rounded up earlier this month, but for a single 100ml cup on the walk home, S$3.75 each is fair.

S$1 drinks and snacks at selected stores

7-Elevenâ??s website also lists a new batch of S$1 deals from 4 to 17 November 2026, at selected stores only. The store list is linked from the official S$1 deals page, so check it before you make a special trip.

Tips before you go

- Bring a cooler bag if you are stocking up on Magnum or Butterbear; the multi-buy prices only make sense if the ice cream survives the trip home.
- Mix flavours where allowed. The Magnum 3 for S$10 deal covers assorted flavours, so you can try the Dubai one without committing to three.
- Exclusives like the Wallâ??s Onigiri Ice Cream may not be in every freezer. Use the store locator on 7-Elevenâ??s site and call ahead if you are after one item.

While you are there, 7-Eleven is also one of the first places stocking the new Tiger Remix Peach Oolong and Yuzu Lime lagers, if you want something to go with the Magnum.
