Scootâ??s #GottaScootTuesdays Black Friday Special runs until 11.59pm on Monday 30 November, with one-way fares out of Singapore from S$82, taxes included. The detail that decides most bookings is the travel period. Bali, Perth and Athens fares reach into December, while Penang, Langkawi, Ipoh, Kuching, Kota Bharu, Kota Kinabalu and Phuket only start in January 2027.

The sale opened at 10am on 24 November and covers flights between 8 December 2026 and 28 February 2027, with each route carrying its own window. The fares are for bookings on flyscoot.com or the Scoot app, on Scoot-operated flights from Changi. It follows the SIA and Scoot Time To Fly fair that opened in October.

Australia and Athens

The long-haul routes carry the clearest prices, one way with taxes in:

- Perth: from S$180 in Economy, or S$335 in ScootPlus
- Melbourne: from S$240, or S$540 in ScootPlus
- Sydney: from S$245, or S$560 in ScootPlus
- Athens: from S$315, or S$790 in ScootPlus

Sydney, Melbourne and Perth share the widest window in the sale, 8 December to 28 February, so Christmas, New Year and all of February are in. Athens runs from 8 December to 1 January and again from 18 January to 24 February, which leaves the first half of January out. Either is an annual-leave trip, not a long weekend.

December or January

For a December break, the routes with sale dates in the month are Bali (8 to 16 December, then 29 December to 26 January), Koh Samui (8 to 15 December), Belitung (8 to 16 December), Medan (8 to 17 December), Kertajati, Pekanbaru, Pontianak and Balikpapan (8 to 17 December), and Tianjin, Qingdao and Wuhan (8 to 18 December). Taipei, the rest of the China list, Hong Kong and Macau open on 27 December, which suits a New Year trip better than a Christmas one.

The Malaysian routes are January and February only. Ipoh, Kota Bharu, Kuching, Langkawi, Penang and Kota Kinabalu fly from 3 to 29 January and from 9 to 24 February. Phuket runs 3 to 27 January and 15 to 24 February, Chiang Mai 11 to 29 January and 11 to 24 February, and Jeju 2 to 31 January. Da Nang is 20 to 31 January and Nha Trang 15 to 24 February. Yogyakarta, Padang and Labuan Bajo also start in January.

A Penang, Ipoh or Langkawi hop fits a Friday-to-Sunday weekend. Bali and Koh Samui are easier with a day of leave on either side.

What the fare covers

Economy-Basic fares leave out checked baggage, meals, inflight entertainment and seat selection, and the payment processing fee sits on top. Full payment is due at booking, and tickets are non-refundable except where Scootâ??s Conditions of Carriage allow a refund. Seats are limited and not on every flight or date, and Scootâ??s terms allow blackout periods over school holidays and event periods, so a date inside a sale window can still come up without a sale fare. Scootâ??s September Everywhere Sale blacked out Christmas week on every listed route, so check the exact date before you pay.
