

9 Best Public Swimming Pools in Singapore for a Fun and Refreshing Dip

Description

Singapore's tropical heat makes a refreshing swim one of the best ways to cool down and thankfully, the island is home to some truly fantastic public swimming pools. Managed by ActiveSG (Sport Singapore), these pools offer far more than just lanes for laps. Think wave pools, lazy rivers, towering water slides, and splash pads, all at incredibly affordable prices.

Whether you're looking for a family-friendly outing, serious lap training, or just a fun way to beat the heat, here's our guide to the 9 best public swimming pools in Singapore.

How Much Does It Cost?

One of the best things about ActiveSG pools is how budget-friendly they are. Pay-per-entry rates for adults start from just $1.50 on weekdays and $2.00 on weekends, while children and senior citizens pay only $0.80 on weekdays and $1.00 on weekends.

If you're a regular swimmer, the MyActiveSWIM pass is a steal at $10 per month for adults and $5 per month for children and seniors, giving you unlimited access to all ActiveSG pools islandwide. That's hard to beat for a fitness routine in Singapore.

1. Jurong East Swimming Complex

Address: 21 Jurong East Street 31, Singapore 609517

A favourite among Singaporeans since it opened in 2000, the Jurong East Swimming Complex was the first public pool in Singapore to feature a lazy river, wave pool, and water slides. After a renovation, it partially reopened on 29 March 2026 with a refreshed water play area, revamped kiddy pools, and the beloved wave pool and lazy river still intact.

The lazy river winds through lush landscaping with tunnels and bridges, while the wave pool reaches depths of up to 1.8 metres. Note that the competition pool is expected to remain closed until end of 2026 due to ongoing works.

Operating hours: Daily except Monday, 8am - 9.30pm

2. Sengkang Swimming Complex

Address: 57 Anchorvale Road, Singapore 544964

The newly revamped Sengkang Swimming Complex is a must-visit for thrill-seekers. It boasts five colourful water slides with playful names like Sugar Rush, Rainbow Dash, Jelly Lime Loops, and Jellybean Swizzle â?? each one looping, curling, and intertwining for maximum fun. Thereâ??s also a splash-and-slide area with water soakers, a jacuzzi for relaxation, an indoor sheltered pool, and a competition pool for serious training.

Operating hours: Wednesday, Friday and Sunday, 8am â?? 9.30pm; Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, 6.30pm â?? 9.30pm; closed on Monday (except public holidays)

3. Choa Chu Kang Swimming Complex

Address: 1 Choa Chu Kang Street 53, Singapore 689236

Choa Chu Kang Swimming Complex is the only ActiveSG pool in Singapore that features a proper wave pool. The waves are activated for 10â??15-minute intervals, with a siren alerting swimmers before they begin. Besides the wave pool, youâ??ll find a slide pool, a sheltered teaching pool, and an Olympic-sized competition pool. Itâ??s a brilliant option for families who want a bit of seaside excitement without heading to the beach.

Operating hours: Daily except Monday, 8am â?? 9.30pm

4. Jurong West Swimming Complex

Address: 20 Jurong West Street 93, Singapore 648965

Another gem in the west, Jurong West Swimming Complex features a lazy river that winds through the facility, along with a competition pool, wading pools, and shallow pools with play structures designed for young children. Itâ??s a laid-back spot for families looking for a casual swim rather than adrenaline-pumping slides.

Operating hours: Daily except Monday, 8am â?? 9.30pm

5. Tampines Swimming Complex (Our Tampines Hub)

Address: 1 Tampines Walk, Singapore 528523

Located within the massive Our Tampines Hub integrated development, this complex is one of the most well-equipped in the east. It features six swimming pools, a jacuzzi, and a garden-themed kidsâ?? wading pool complete with water fountains and water play features. After your swim, the hub offers plenty of dining options, a library, and even a hawker centre â?? making it easy to turn your pool visit into a full day out.

Operating hours: Daily except Monday, 8am â?? 9.30pm

6. Punggol Swimming Complex (Opening 2026)

Address: 11 Sentul Crescent, Singapore 828654

One of the most anticipated openings this year, the Punggol Swimming Complex is part of the new Punggol Regional Sports Centre. It will feature five pools including a 50-metre infinity pool, a training pool with starting blocks and underwater viewing panels, a leisure pool, a kiddy pool, and a diving pool. The broader sports centre will also include indoor sports halls, fitness studios, a gym, and a 5,000-seat football stadium. Keep an eye out for its official opening date.

7. Woodlands Swimming Complex

Address: 3 Woodlands Street 13, Singapore 738600

A popular choice in the north, Woodlands Swimming Complex offers a solid mix of facilities for families and fitness enthusiasts alike. It features a competition pool for serious swimmers, a teaching pool, and a wading pool with fun water play features for the little ones. The complex is well-maintained and rarely overcrowded, making it a great neighbourhood option.

Operating hours: Daily except Monday, 8am – 9.30pm

8. Katong Swimming Complex

Address: 111 Wilkinson Road, Singapore 436752

Tucked away in the charming Katong area, this swimming complex offers a more relaxed vibe compared to the larger feature pools. It's perfect for residents in the east who want a quiet, no-frills swim. The complex has a competition pool and a wading pool, and it's conveniently located near East Coast Park – so you could easily pair your swim with a leisurely visit to a cafe at East Coast Park.

Operating hours: Daily except Monday, 8am – 9.30pm

9. MOE (Evans) Swimming Complex

Address: 21 Evans Road, Singapore 259366

Located near the Botanic Gardens, MOE (Evans) Swimming Complex is a hidden gem in the central area. It's a smaller, quieter pool that's ideal for lap swimmers and those who prefer a peaceful environment. After your swim, consider pairing it with a hike at the nearby Bukit Timah Nature Reserve for a full morning of outdoor fitness.

Operating hours: Daily except Monday, 8am – 9.30pm

Tips for Visiting Public Pools in Singapore

- Bring your own towel and goggles – most pools don't provide them.
- Swim caps are required in competition pools at most complexes.

- Arrive early on weekends – popular feature pools like Jurong East and Sengkang can get crowded by mid-morning.
- Download the ActiveSG app to check real-time pool availability, purchase swim passes, and book facilities.
- All pools are closed on Mondays for maintenance (except on public holidays).

Final Thoughts

Singapore's public swimming pools are some of the best-value leisure facilities on the island. From wave pools and lazy rivers to towering water slides and infinity pools, there's something for everyone – and all at a fraction of the cost of a private club membership. So grab your swimsuit, slap on some sunscreen, and dive in.
