

Vintage Market 2026 at SAFRA Mount Faber: free entry from 27 to 29 November, with over 50 booths and a shuttle at weekends

Description

default watermark

Vintage Market 2026 opens at the SAFRA Mount Faber atrium on Friday 27 November and runs to Sunday 29 November, with more than 50 booths of vintage goods, classic toys, retro games and collectibles. Entry is free for everyone and no registration is needed.

This is the fourth edition of the market, run this year with Old Habits, the vintage-themed restaurant that started at Telok Blangah Rise in 2014 and now sits inside SAFRA Mount Faber. This yearâ??s theme is Growing Up with Singapore, and every vendor in the marketplace was invited by Old Habits.

The Vintage Market 2026 key visual. Image: SAFRA

Opening hours and how to get there

- Friday 27 November: 12pm to 9pm
- Saturday 28 November: 11am to 8pm
- Sunday 29 November: 11am to 8pm

The venue is SAFRA Mount Faber, 2 Telok Blangah Way, Singapore 098803. HarbourFront MRT station is the nearest stop. On Saturday and Sunday only, a free shuttle bus runs every 30 minutes from 10am to 9pm between the HarbourFront Station Exit A bus stop (14129) and the club. There is no shuttle on the Friday.

SAFRA members get 5 per cent off fixed-price items. The discount does not apply to anything bought at a bargained or negotiated price, so a haggled price and the member discount do not stack.

What is on for families

The marketplace mixes retro fashion, antiques, designer toys, handmade crafts and memorabilia. For children who need a reason to keep walking, the Vintage Market Mission Quest sets one mission at each of five participating booths and activity stations. Each completed mission earns a stamp, and a full card of five stamps is exchanged at the SAFRA admin table for a limited-edition Vintage Market patch. There is one patch design per day, while stocks last, and a QR code entry for a lucky draw with a Nintendo Switch as the prize.

A Vintage Market booth of retro toys and collectibles. Image: SAFRA

The mission stations include a Bluebird Gel Blaster target zone and a row of classic retro arcade machines. A classic Volkswagen Combi is parked as a photo spot.

Alvinâ??s Bunker and the Star Wars hour

Collector Alvin Lee is showing military uniforms, badges, helmets and artefacts that span the Second World War to the modern SAF. For families with a son or daughter about to enlist, or a grandparent who served, it is the one corner of the market that is a small exhibition rather than a shop.

Military uniforms and badges from Alvinâ??s Bunker. Image: SAFRA

default watermark

Star Wars characters from the 501st Legion Singapore Garrison are on hand for photographs from 1pm to 2.30pm on Saturday 28 November and Sunday 29 November. Anyone with a young Star Wars fan should build the afternoon around that 90-minute window, since it does not run on the Friday.

Star Wars characters from the 501st Legion Singapore Garrison at SAFRA Mount Faber. Image: SAFRA

Planning the visit

Saturday and Sunday are the days with the shuttle and the costumed photo sessions, so they are the better bet for a family outing with small children. Friday runs later, to 9pm.

Old Habits, at #01-04 in the same building, opens from 11am to 11.30pm on Fridays and Saturdays, and 11am to 10pm on Sundays.

The full programme and shuttle timetable are on the SAFRA Vintage Market 2026 event listing.

Date Created
24/11/2026
Author
nuraisyah

default watermark