

Alex To Get Up World Tour Heads To Resorts World Sentosa

Description

Resorts World Sentosa's event listing has Alex To 2026 Get Up World Tour down for 18 July 2026.

The listing frames the night around Mandopop classics such as Love You Forever, Lover and Take Off, making this a targeted nostalgia concert rather than a broad pop showcase.

What Is Listed

RWS lists the concert as a coming-soon event and points booking to SISTIC. The date shown is 18 July 2026, so it lands before the late-August run of bigger Indoor Stadium Mandopop shows.

That timing gives fans a cleaner July option if they want a weekend Sentosa plan built around a concert rather than a full Kallang arena night.

- Event: Alex To 2026 Get Up World Tour.
- Date: 18 July 2026.
- Venue source: Resorts World Sentosa event listing.
- Booking route: SISTIC.

Who It Suits

This is best for fans who know the older Mandarin and Cantonese pop catalogue and want the live version of familiar singalong material. The official listing leans into that memory lane clearly.

Because it sits at RWS, it also works as a dinner-plus-show night if you want to avoid moving across town after the performance.

The Sentosa setting is the extra planning variable. If you are not staying on the island, decide early whether to use the boardwalk, monorail, taxi or car, because post-show exits can feel slower when several attractions close around the same evening window.

Planning Notes

Use RWS for the event listing and SISTIC for booking. If you are staying on Sentosa or pairing the concert with dinner, reserve the meal separately rather than assuming the concert listing includes dining access.
