Anime Festival Asia Singapore 2026 takes over Suntec Singapore Convention and Exhibition Centre, Halls 401 to 406, from Friday 27 to Sunday 29 November 2026. Exhibition tickets start at S$25 for a day, and the three night concerts start at S$98 per seat. Doors for the exhibition hall open at 10am and close at 8pm each day.

This is the Singapore-Japan 60th anniversary year, and the festivalâ??s key visual says so. Expect the usual crush of cosplayers, merch booths and queues for limited goods, so plan your days properly.

Anime Festival Asia Singapore 2026 concert lineup

The exhibition hall has exhibitor booths, the NEXT Stage, a Creators Hub, a Cosplay Hub and a Food Street. There is also a Makoto Shinkai exhibit area and a namie art exhibition, plus an AFA Shop with Hatsune Miku merchandise.

Getting there and planning your day

Suntec is a short walk from Promenade and Esplanade MRT stations, with sheltered links in between. If you have a night concert ticket, you can stay in the hall from the 10am opening and go straight to the concert at 6pm. Food Street inside the hall will cover lunch, and a power bank is worth packing for a 10am to 10pm day.

Check the festivalâ??s event guide before you go, since the schedule and exhibitor list are still being filled in. If you are weighing this against another weekend plan, the Affordable Art Fair at the F1 Pit Building runs over the same dates, from 26 to 29 November.

Tickets are sold through Ticketmaster Singapore and Trip.com, and the festival site is animefestival.asia/afasg26.
