

ARTBOX CAMP 2026 Kicks Off at Singapore Expo – One Final Weekend Left to Dive In

Description

ARTBOX CAMP 2026 has officially kicked off at Singapore Expo Hall 3, transforming the venue into a buzzing creative campground as thousands of visitors gathered over the opening weekend to explore art, food, retail and entertainment from across the region.

Singapore’s largest creative festival continues to invite audiences to discover, participate and support the next generation of creatives and entrepreneurs, with plenty to eat, see, discover and experience. With one final weekend still to go, there’s still time to be part of the action.

Demo Day Highlights

A dedicated Demo Day was held on 2 April, graced by Ms Low Yen Ling, Senior Minister of State, Ministry of Trade and Industry and Ministry of Culture, Community and Youth. The session offered invited guests an inside look at the ideas, conversations and people shaping Southeast Asia’s creative economy.

What to Expect at ARTBOX CAMP 2026

ARTBOX CAMP brings together a vibrant mix of creative entrepreneurs, artists, food vendors and performers under one roof. Visitors can look forward to discovering unique retail finds, sampling diverse food offerings, enjoying live entertainment, and experiencing immersive art installations – all within the campground-inspired setting that has become ARTBOX’s signature.
