Singapore and Vietnam Advance to ASEAN Hyundai Cup 2026 Semi-Finals

Description

default watermark

Singapore are through. The Lions booked their place in the ASEAN Hyundai Cup 2026 semi-finals on Friday, holding Indonesia to a 1-1 draw at Jalan Besar to finish second in Group A. Defending champions Vietnam took top spot with a 3-1 win over Cambodia, so both Group A sides move on to the last four.

Singapore and Vietnam advance from Group A. Image: SPORTFIVE / ASEAN Hyundai Cup

Ilhan Fandi keeps the Lions ticking

Indonesia struck first through Ragnar Oratmangoen on 47 minutes, but Singapore responded when Ilhan Fandi levelled on 66 minutes, a goal that ultimately secured the point Singapore needed. It was the kind of composed, resilient display that has defined the Lionsâ?? group campaign, and it sends Gavin Leeâ??s side into the knockout rounds with belief.

Ilhan Fandiâ??s equaliser sealed Singaporeâ??s place in the semi-finals. Image: SPORTFIVE / ASEAN Hyundai Cup

How Group A finished

Vietnam top the group after their win over Cambodia, with Singapore joining them in second. For the Lions, reaching the semi-finals of a regional tournament is a real marker of progress, and it sets up a mouth-watering last-four tie once the Group B picture is complete.

default watermark

Malaysia are among the Group B sides chasing a semi-final spot. Image: SPORTFIVE / ASEAN Hyundai Cup

Thailand and Malaysia complete the last four

Group B is now settled. Thailand made it four wins from four, beating Myanmar 2-0 in Bangkok through goals from Worachit Kanitsribumphen on 11 minutes and Jehhanafee Mamah on 52 minutes to finish top with a perfect record. Malaysia won to secure second place and the final semi-final berth.

Thailand and Malaysia join Singapore and Vietnam in the semi-finals. Image: SPORTFIVE / ASEAN Hyundai Cup

The confirmed semi-final line-up

With all four last-four places decided, the semi-finals pit Singapore against Thailand and Malaysia against defending champions Vietnam. Gavin Leeâ??s Lions face the toughest possible draw in seven-time champions Thailand, while Malaysia meet a Vietnam side that topped Group A. It promises a cracking finish to the tournament.

For the build-up, revisit our Singapore vs Indonesia match guide and our look at Malaysiaâ??s perfect Group B run.

Date Created
08/08/2026
Author
jadeyeo

default watermark