Buffet prices at The Star by day and time, before service charge and GST. Image: Paradise Group

Paradise Group has opened Beauty in The Pot Buffet at #02-24 The Star, with a grand-opening offer that started on 25 November. The group bills it as Singaporeansâ?? favourite hotpot going buffet style: eight broths brewed fresh daily, more than 100 ingredients, unlimited international hot dishes and dim sum, and what it calls its largest dessert and pastry spread, with a live dessert station.

Three tiers, priced by day and hour

Every set runs 90 minutes from seating, with last orders 20 minutes before the end. All prices below are before service charge and prevailing GST, which are added to the bill.

Monday to Friday:

- Lunch, 11.30am to 2.30pm: Standard S$28.90, Deluxe Beef and Seafood S$39.90, Luxury Wagyu and Seafood S$56.90
- Hi-tea, 2.31pm to 4.30pm: S$15.90 for cooked food, desserts and drinks only, no hotpot, 60 minutes
- Dinner, 4.31pm to 10pm: Standard S$38.90, Deluxe S$48.90, Luxury S$69.90

Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays:

- Lunch, 11am to 2.30pm: S$32.90, S$43.90, S$59.90
- Happy hour, 2.31pm to 4.30pm: S$23.90, S$32.90, S$45.90
- Dinner, 4.31pm to 10pm: S$42.90, S$52.90, S$72.90

Last seating for dinner is 8.30pm on any day. Children aged 5 to 12 pay half on the hotpot sets, under-5s eat free, and students get S$3.90 off on weekdays before 2.30pm, except public holidays, on showing a valid student pass. Everyone at the table has to pick the same set.

What the extra money buys

The tiers differ only in the set-exclusive meats and seafood. Standard covers sliced pork belly, chicken, chicken thigh, pork collar and three pastes, including century egg fish paste. Deluxe adds US Angus chuck roll, Australian sirloin, US short plate, lamb, Kurobuta and Duroc pork, scallops, sea prawns, snakehead fish, prawn dumplings and drunken chicken. Luxury brings Japanese wagyu chuck eye roll, US wagyu karubi, Angus prime short rib, half-shell abalone, salmon, Iberico and Japanese pork.

All sets choose from four classic soups: tomato with sweet corn, pork bone, spicy, and cordyceps flower with mushroom. The four signature soups, including the Beauty Collagen base the chain built its name on, cost extra: S$15 for a single pot, S$10 each in a twin pot, S$5 each in a four-way pot. Food wastage is charged at S$10 per 100g.

The opening upgrade

From 25 November to 1 December, Citi and OCBC credit or debit cardmembers and Paradise Gourmet Rewards members get a free one-tier upgrade on their buffet set. Snap the buffet line or the live dessert station, post it on a public TikTok, Instagram or RedNote account and show the post to staff. Each post, on a different account, upgrades one diner, and the upgrade has to be confirmed before dining starts. The offer cannot be combined with other discounts, promotions, vouchers or membership privileges.
