Burger King Singaporeâ??s Star Wars campaign is live on the official Burger King Singapore site. The promotion is tied to Star Wars: The Mandalorian and Grogu, which the campaign artwork says is in cinemas from 21 May.

Movie-Themed Menu Items

The Star Wars menu artwork shows these items: Galaxy Turkey Bacon Cheeseburger, Groguâ??s Bounty Crispy Chicken, Chicken Fries with Wasabi Mayo Sauce, Loaded Force Fries and Groguâ??s Chilli Cheese Bites in a 6-piece serving.

Mug Top-Up Deal

The banner states: with any movie-themed meal purchase, customers can top up S$5.95 for a limited-edition movie-themed mug. The artwork shows two mug designs. It also states that visuals are for illustrative purposes and that the item is while stocks last.

King Jr Toy Schedule

The King Jr campaign image says there are 8 toys, with one toy per King Jr Meal while stocks last. The schedule shown is: from 27 April, The Mandalorian; from 4 May, Grogu; from 11 May, Mando with Jetpack or Zeb; from 18 May, Grogu in Pram or Stormtrooper; from 25 May, Razor Crest; and from 1 June, AT-RT Driver.

The King Jr artwork shows the weekly Star Wars toy release schedule and the one-toy-per-King-Jr-Meal condition.

Where To Order

Use Burger King Singaporeâ??s official Restaurants locator for outlet addresses and opening hours. The locator currently shows 70 Burger King restaurants in Singapore. The first page lists Tampines Changkat Community Club, Alexandra Retail Centre, Anchorvale Village and ARTRA; other listed locations include Changi Airport terminals, Chinatown Point, Clarke Quay Central, Compass One, Jem, Jurong Point, Marina Square, Plaza Singapura, Suntec City Mall, VivoCity, Waterway Point and West Mall.

Burger King Singapore also links to BK Delivery. If ordering delivery, check that the movie-themed meal, mug top-up or King Jr toy option appears in the basket before payment.

Burger King Singaporeâ??s homepage also carries a QCL banner separately from the Star Wars campaign.
