

Castlery Black Friday sale Singapore: up to S$850 off to 1 December

Description

The Castlery Black Friday sale Singapore shoppers can use has been upsized, and the bigger tiers run from 25 November to 1 December 2026. Spend S$1,500 and you take S$120 off, and the top tier is S$850 off a S$7,000 basket. If a new sofa, bed or dining table is on your list for the new year, this is the window to price it up.

The Singapore furniture brand is also holding an in-store weekend at its Orchard flagship from 27 to 29 November. That adds goodie bags, gifts with purchase and a prize draw on top of the discounts.

Castlery Black Friday sale Singapore tiers and dates

The upsized sale starts at 12am on 25 November and ends at 11.59pm on 1 December, Singapore time. Discounts apply automatically at a single checkout once you hit the spend. Shipping does not count towards the threshold.

- S$120 off when you spend S$1,500
- S$280 off at S$3,000
- S$600 off at S$5,000
- S$850 off at S$7,000

The offer stacks with other discount codes and credit vouchers, and it covers Clearance and Final Markdown items. It leaves out past purchases, the Customisation Service and anything out of stock. Orders above S$500 get free delivery, and first-time buyers see S$50 off with a S$1,000 minimum on the website banner.

Do not mix this up with the earlier Black Friday round, which ran 16 to 24 November with smaller tiers of S$120, S$250, S$550 and S$770. Some roundups still quote a 6 December finish, but the brandâ??s own terms give 1 December.

What the Orchard in-store weekend adds

The showroom is at Liat Towers, 541 Orchard Road, #02/03-02, Singapore 238881. It is a short walk from Orchard MRT. The page lists the event for 27 to 29 November but does not state opening hours, so check before you head down.

- A Grand Giveaway for a Shark Ninja Home Set worth S$2,114, with a bladeless fan, cordless vacuum, multicooker and ice cream maker
- Mystery goodie bags for the first 50 guests who RSVP and visit that weekend, while stocks last
- Homeware gifts with purchase when you shop in store from 27 to 29 November, subject to terms

RSVP through the event page on the Castlery Singapore website. Tiered savings of up to S$850 can be combined with the in-store perks.

Price checks before you commit

The sale page lists a few clearance pieces with clear markdowns. The Harper Bed with Bedside Table Set is S$1,169 against a U.P. of S$2,298. The Dillon Extendable Dining Table (190 to 280cm) is S$909, down from S$1,299, and the Xander Leather Swivel Armchair is S$839, down from S$1,299.

The Pebble Chaise Sectional Sofa is S$1,259 against S$1,799. Prices on the page can change as stock moves, so treat these as a snapshot taken on 28 November.

A tip for HDB buyers: measure the lift, the corridor and the door before you order. Big sofas and extendable tables are easy to love online and hard to squeeze through a narrow 3-room entrance. If you are still weighing other retailers, our Black Friday 2026 Singapore guide lists every official deal and its end date, and the Home Planner Expo 2026 write-up covers the December renovation fair.

Plan your spend around the tiers. A S$2,900 basket misses the S$280 tier by S$100, so adding a side table or cushions could pay for itself.

Delivery timing matters if you are furnishing before Chinese New Year. Check the lead time for your chosen piece at checkout, because stock labelled as leaving the warehouse by a set date can shift once the rush starts.
