

Hobbies Fair 2025: Dive into Singapore's Biggest Hobbyist Playground

Description

Mark your calendars for 20-21 September 2025, when Suntec Singapore Convention & Exhibition Centre (Hall 401-402) transforms into a buzzing hub of creativity, community, and quirky fun at the Hobbies Fair 2025—and it's absolutely free!

- A Universe of Passions Under One Roof

Whether you're into trading cards, model-building, K-pop memorabilia, vintage cameras, or interactive gaming, the fair brings every niche hobby into the spotlight. With over 220 vendors expected, there's something to excite every enthusiast.

- Engaging, Hands-on Experiences

Put your skills to the test or try something totally new. From Jesmonite coaster crafting and macramé workshops to live RC drift competitions and dynamic foam blaster arenas, every corner invites exploration.

- Interactive Spaces That Spark Connection

Whether you're strategizing in the Trading Card Game Zone, watching mini four-wheel-drive drifts, or enjoying panel talks and live demos, the fair fosters a sense of belonging among hobbyists of all ages.

- Perfect for Families – Kid-friendly and family-oriented, it's a weekend of discovery and bonding.
- Inspiring for Beginners & Experts – Whether you're testing a new interest or honing a lifelong passion, inspiration awaits.
- A Festival of Community & Creativity – Beyond shopping, this is where communities connect, ideas are shared, and new hobbies are born.

Discover workshops, competitions, and 220+ vendors at Singapore's ultimate hobbyist playground. Perfect for families, enthusiasts, and curious beginners alike!
