Description

For one special afternoon this National Day, Racines at Sofitel Singapore City Centre is laying out a feast that puts Singapore squarely on the plate and throwing in a 1-for-1 deal that makes the celebration twice as sweet.

The Ultimate Racines Buffet Brunch: National Day Edition takes place on Saturday, 8 August 2026, from 12:30pm to 3pm, at Racines on Level 5 of Sofitel Singapore City Centre. Themed around the Straits, the brunch draws on the multicultural flavours of Singapore to bring together an eclectic spread from the carving station to cold seafood on ice, from local noodles to French-inspired desserts.

The 1-for-1 Deal

Bring a companion and dine at $128++ per adult pair – one adult dines free when you book as a pair. Children enjoy the brunch at $64++ per child, and seniors aged 60 and above get in at a special rate of $61++.

What's on the Spread

The brunch brings together a Straits-inspired selection that reads like a love letter to Singapore's diverse food heritage. Start at the cold seafood counter with freshly-shucked seasonal oysters, poached tiger prawns, and salmon sashimi. Move on to artisanal cheeses and a warming truffle mushroom soup before heading to the hot stations.

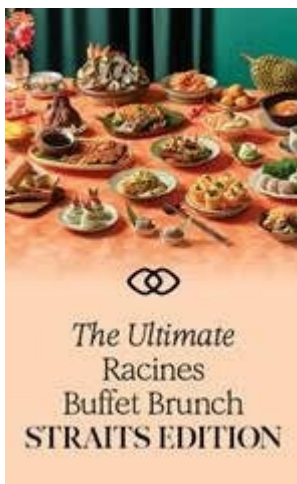

The highlights run deep: a roasted suckling pig at the carving station, dang gui herbal roasted duck, wok-fried black pepper prawns, beef brisket with radish and mushrooms, and kam heong white clams. There is also a Singapore laksa station and a D.I.Y. kueh pie tee corner for those who like to build their own.

For dessert, expect local-inspired French creations including cempedak cr me br le, warm yam paste, and ondeh-ondeh cake.
