

Charlie And The Chocolate Factory Ends Its Singapore Run This Weekend

Description

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory - The Musical is in its final Singapore weekend, with the Sands Theatre run ending on 14 June 2026.

The Marina Bay Sands page lists Singapore as the musical's first stop in Southeast Asia, with a family-friendly show built around Roald Dahl's story, songs from the film and newer numbers by the Hairspray songwriters.

Golden Ticket Extras

MBS lists Wonka Golden Surprise Seats from S$238 onwards. The page says hundreds of Golden Tickets are hidden beneath seats across performances, with prizes from partners including Klook, TADA, MAC, NARS, Clarins and TWG.

The wider property tie-in includes themed sweets at Origin + Bloom, a chocolate dessert at KOMA and a limited-edition Scrumdilyumptious Shake at Black Tap Craft Burgers and Beer.

The show schedule uses off-peak and peak pricing. MBS lists off-peak shows on Tuesday to Thursday at 8pm, excluding eve of public holiday, and Sunday at 6.30pm. Peak pricing includes Friday 8pm, Saturday 2pm and 8pm, and Sunday 1pm.

If you are buying for children, remember the listed runtime is about 150 minutes with intermission. A matinee may work better than an evening show if the group needs an easier trip home.

Who It Works For

This is a straightforward family-musical pick for the June school-holiday window, especially for readers who prefer a known story over a more experimental stage work. The run ends quickly, so seats and timings matter more than usual this weekend.

The theatre page also provides access contact details for wheelchair accessible seats and companion-seat enquiries. For a smooth visit, handle those arrangements before buying standard seats rather than trying to adjust at the venue.

Outside food and drinks are not the plan for Sands Theatre, so budget time either for a pre-show meal or the concession items listed by the venue.
