What to eat at the MHR booth

Find MHR at Booth T-E01 in the F&B Market, open 10am to 9pm daily from 27 to 29 November in Hall F. Public entry is free. Orchard Hotel Singapore is serving signature Chicken Rice from The Orchard Cafe, Roasted Duck Rice from Hua Ting Restaurant and Pandan Chiffon Cake, plus festive hampers, with 5 per cent of hamper sales going to charity.

The cause behind the village

Presented by Sustainable Markets SG, the 70,000-square-foot festive village expects more than 40,000 visitors and aims to raise S$600,000 for Singapore Red Cross Young Hearts, which provides vulnerable children with education, mentorship, enrichment, nutrition and safe after-school support. Eunice Yeo, founder of Peace of Art and Sustainable Markets SG, said the event is built on the belief that everyone has something to contribute.

How MHR is chipping in

- Team tree: colleagues from the Corporate Office decorated an eight-foot tree on 26 November using rented decorations that will be returned for reuse.
- Sweatworking: a Customer & Media Appreciation Day on 27 November combined pickleball, networking and giving back.
- Pack for Good: 100 charity gift bags, 40 from the Corporate Office and 60 from its hotels, each worth about S$25 and filled with food essentials such as UHT milk, oats, canned fish, instant noodles and cooking oil.
- Christmas Shophouse Surprise: six hotel stay prizes worth S$6,177 across Auckland, Phuket, Suzhou, New York and Singapore.
