

Christmas Wonderland 2026 at Gardens by the Bay: tickets from S$9, 27 November to 3 January

Description

default watermark

Christmas Wonderland 2026 at Gardens by the Bay runs from 27 November 2026 to 3 January 2027, and advance adult tickets start at S$9. It is the 13th edition of the free-roaming festive fair, spread over more than 30,000sqm with over 40 attractions. The price of a ticket depends on the night you pick, so a little planning saves real money.

The festival is presented by Trip.com and organised by Blue Sky Events. Here is what is new, what it costs and how to avoid paying the most.

Christmas Wonderland 2026 ticket prices by date

Advance tickets are about 25 per cent cheaper than same-day ones, which are subject to availability. Children aged 3 to 12 pay S$7, and under-3s go in free.

- Off-peak (27 November to 3 December, and 7 to 10 December): S$9 advance, S$12 same-day for adults.
- Peak (14 to 17 December, and 28 December to 3 January): S$11 advance, S$14 same-day.
- Super peak (4 to 6 December, 11 to 13 December and 18 to 27 December): S$13 advance, S$16 same-day.

Rides, carnival games, the OCBC Skyway, Supertree Observatory, Floral Fantasy and the conservatories are charged separately. A weeknight in the first fortnight is the cheapest way in, and it also earns you a coupon booklet (more on that below).

Source: Christmas Wonderland / Blue Sky Events

What is new this year

The headline act is Santa Mission Control, a 450sqm walk-through built around a 30m by 8.5m display. You play one of Santaâ??s helpers, with woodworking and gift-wrapping stations and a command centre tracking deliveries worldwide.

Look up among the Supertrees for the Elf Treehouse, a 20m-tall digital display showing elves and woodland creatures decorating their home. Other first-timers include the Grab Holiday Village, which is family and pet friendly, and Korean-style self-photo booths by Solace Studios with eight Christmas-themed rooms such as Gift Room and Gingerbread Shop.

Flying Santa returns with an enhanced show, and extra flight sessions have been added after strong demand.

default watermark

Source: Christmas Wonderland / Blue Sky Events

Light displays, snow and 180 hours of shows

The returning centrepiece is Spalliera, a six-storey luminarie standing 20m tall, handcrafted by one of Italyâ??s oldest artisan families. It is also the backdrop for Blizzard Time, when artificial snow drifts through the Supertree Grove. Expect a few kiasu parents with kids on their shoulders near the front.

The fairground adds lit-up lanes such as Merry Lane, Snowball Lane and Jingle Grove. Organisers list more than 180 hours of performances across the run, from choirs and dance showcases to mascot appearances and the Garden Rhapsody light and sound show. Food stalls include Birds of Paradise, Churros Republic and SOHTT, and Mistletoe Alley has novelty gifts and a Build-a-Bear vending machine.

default watermark

Source: Christmas Wonderland / Blue Sky Events

Save more with Merry Deals and Grab offers

Visitors who go between 27 November and 10 December can collect Merry Deals coupons worth up to S$50, first come, first served. They include free carnival games and rides, discounts at selected booths and a free Trip.Com gift for completing activities.

- Grab Dine Out gives 10 per cent off at participating food and drink vendors.
- Grab Group Ride vouchers are S$5 off, and rides to or from Gardens by the Bay with pet-friendly, family-friendly or Premium options get 15 per cent off.
- GrabMaps can guide you around the fairground.

Plan your visit

The festival is at Gardens by the Bay, and Bayfront MRT is the closest station. Check the festival site, christmaswonderland.sg, for session times and the event map before you go, because hours can change.

If you are visiting on 5 or 6 December, note that Gardens by the Bay car parks close for the marathon. Our Singapore Marathon weekend guide has the road and MRT details.

default watermark

Want more festive lights? See the Orchard Road Christmas light-up guide, or pair your visit with the Disney Garden of Wonder Supertree Observatory bundle from S$18 for adults.

Terms: prices are for adults unless stated, subject to availability and session. Merry Deals coupons are while stocks last.

Date Created
20/11/2026
Author
nuraisyah