Common Rare Market opens at Suntec: online from S$4, door S$7, pets welcome

Description

default watermark

Common Rare Market, the Shanghai indie market, opens its first Singapore edition at Suntec Convention Centre Halls 401â??402 from Friday 18 to Sunday 20 September 2026, daily 12.30pm to 9pm. The three-day run also marks the collectiveâ??s 10th anniversary.

Common Rare Market at Suntec Halls 401â??402. Image: Suntec / Common Rare

Founders Tiffany Wang and Vivian Sze are bringing more than 200 curated independent brands across fashion, lifestyle, homeware, ceramics, fragrance, art and indie print. Over 100 of those labels are making a Singapore debut. Expect live music, workshops, an art exhibition, and food and drink alongside the stalls.

Tickets and pets

Online tickets start from S$4 (early bird) and door tickets from S$7. Children under 12 enter free. Book through Ticketmelon or common-rare.com.

The market is pet-friendly: dogs and other companions are welcome on a leash and under supervision. That is unusual for a convention-hall floor, so keep walks short and calm if the aisles fill up.

How to get there

Venue: Suntec Singapore Convention & Exhibition Centre, Halls 401â??402, 1 Raffles Boulevard, Singapore 039593. Nearest MRT is Esplanade (CC) or Promenade (CC/DT), with a short covered walk through Suntec City. Enter via the convention centre lifts to Level 4 for Halls 401â??402.

Opening weekend runs Friday through Sunday only. Arrive earlier on Friday if you want quieter browsing; Saturday and Sunday usually pack harder after mid-afternoon.

Date Created
18/09/2026
Author
priya

default watermark