Pit Stop and Fast Lane at The Terrace

Over at The Terrace, two limited-edition cocktails, Pit Stop and Fast Lane, headline the race week menu. To match the extended race-day crowds, the bar is also running longer hours, opening from 9am through to 1am the following day across the race week period.

24-hour dining at Oscar's

Guests looking to refuel at any hour can head to Oscar's, which is running 24-hour dining from 7 to 11 October, including a supper menu served from 11pm to 6am. It is a welcome option for anyone out late watching the circuit lights or catching a post-race supper with friends.

A Recovery Ritual for the morning after

For those who overdo it on race week festivities, Conrad Singapore Marina Bay's Recovery Ritual spa experience combines sound therapy, guided meditation and a therapeutic massage. It runs over a longer window, from 2 to 14 October, so there is time to book a slot even after the chequered flag falls.
