SAFRA members can get 1-for-1 Universal Studios Singapore adult one-day tickets until 31 December 2026, with child add-on tickets at S$59 each instead of S$69. SAFRA USS 1-for-1 tickets are sold by Resorts World Sentosa (RWS) as part of its Season of Joy, to mark 59 years of National Service. SAFRAâ??s own page says two adult tickets normally cost up to S$178, so the saving can be big on a peak date.

What the SAFRA USS 1-for-1 tickets give you

Buy one Adult One-Day Ticket and you get a second Adult One-Day Ticket free. Adults here mean anyone aged 13 and above. Children aged 4 to 12 can then be added at S$59 each, against the usual S$69.

The child price is an add-on, not a standalone deal. You must pick your 1-for-1 adult tickets first, and only then does the child option unlock. Each transaction is capped at six adult and six child tickets.

Validity dates for the SAFRA USS 1-for-1 tickets

The RWS booking page lists the promotion period as 20 October to 31 December 2026. SAFRAâ??s page says the tickets are valid for visits until 31 December 2026, on USS operating days and during regular park hours. The booking page shows separate November and December calendars, and the price you pay for the pair depends on the date you choose.

Halloween Horror Nights and other separately ticketed events are not covered. Since the year-end school holidays are close, December dates are likely to be the busy ones, so pick your day with that in mind.

How to book

1. Open the SAFRA Universal Studios Singapore promotion page and tap the booking link. It takes you to the RWS page.
2. Choose your date and the number of 1-for-1 adult tickets.
3. Add child tickets at S$59 each if you need them.
4. Pay with a Singapore-issued credit card. No promo code is needed if you use the link from SAFRA.
5. Check your email for the e-tickets.

Terms and conditions to read first

These are the rules from SAFRA and RWS. A few of them catch people out, so go through the list before you pay.

- Bring a valid SAFRA card or the e-card in the SAFRA app. Staff may ask for it at entry, and one card is enough for everyone in the same group entering together.
- Promotional tickets are non-cancellable, non-refundable and non-transferable, even in bad weather.
- The promotion only works with Singapore-issued credit cards.
- Show the e-ticket itself at the gate. Screenshots and other reproductions are not accepted.

- No outside food or drinks are allowed in the park.
- The deal cannot be combined with other promotions, privileges, discount cards or promotional vouchers.
- RWS can amend or withdraw the terms without notice, and ticket queries go to attractions@rwsentosa.com.

Is it worth it for a family?

Do the sums on your own date. A family of four with two adults and two kids pays the price of one adult ticket for the parents, plus S$118 for two child add-ons. That child component is S$20 less than at the usual S$69 each.

Because the tickets cannot be changed once bought, book close to your visit if your plans are loose. If you only visit a few times a year, you might also compare it with the Universal Studios Singapore season pass with 7 months for the price of 6.

Going over the festive period? Our guide to RWS Season of Joy 2026 on Sentosa covers the fireworks nights and tree, and the BTS The City Arirang event at Sentosa may affect crowds in December.

The official terms are on the SAFRA Universal Studios Singapore page. Universal Express is a separate product on the RWS site and the SAFRA terms do not mention it, so check its price and terms before adding it for shorter queues.
