LIV Golf today announced that multi-platinum chart-topping artist Lauv will perform live at Sentosa on Saturday, May 4 to conclude the festivities on day two of LIV Golf Singapore. The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m. at Palawan Green, situated along Palawan Beach, just a short distance from Sentosa Golf Club.

Tickets for Lauv start at SGD 138 and will be available beginning March 28 at 10 am at https://ticketmaster.sg. Fans who have secured tickets to the tournament will need to purchase separate tickets to Lauv.

An American pop sensation, Lauv burst onto the music scene in 2015 with his viral track â??The Other,â?• swiftly followed by the breakout hit â??I Like Me Better,â?• which garnered over one billion global streams on Spotify and achieved sextuple-platinum status in the U.S. and platinum status in 12 other countries. Since then, Lauv has released two full-length albums: the gold-certified debut album â??~how Iâ??m Feeling ~â?• featuring collaborations with Troye Sivan, Anne-Marie, and BTS, and â??All 4 Nothing,â?• introduced in 2022, which was accompanied by a global tour including a stop in Singapore.

ABOUT LIV GOLF SINGAPORE

LIV Golf Singapore returns to Sentosa Golf Club May 3-5 following its successful debut in 2023, with this yearâ??s event marking the seventh stop on the global leagueâ??s 2024 schedule. Alongside three days of top-tier golf action, fans can immerse themselves in the vibrant Fan Village, interactive experiences, and delicious food and beverage offerings at Sentosa Golf Club, one of Asiaâ??s premier sporting venues. The Worldâ??s, Asiaâ??s, and Singaporeâ??s Best Golf Course â?? so named by the 2023 World Golf Awards â?? marks its 50th anniversary in 2024, and the returning LIV Golf Singapore tournament will make a significant contribution to a year of celebration.
