One island, seven Disney Cruise Line experiences

The concept borrows from the seven themed areas aboard the new Disney Adventure ship. Grab an event passport and collect a medallion stamp at each stop as you wander at your own pace. Photo moments are everywhere, and the whole thing glows up after dark.

- Disney Imagination Garden
- Disney Discovery Reef
- Town Square
- Wayfinder Bay
- San Fransokyo Street

Palawan Beach is the heart of the action

Palawan Beach is where the biggest installations live, so pace yourself for the photos. You are greeted by a 6-metre inflatable anchor flanked by sand-blasted Captain Mickey and Captain Minnie figurines. It is the signature outdoor shot of the whole event.

- San Fransokyo Street â?? a 6-metre Baymax inflatable from Big Hero 6, plus beachside deck chairs and a food-truck precinct
- Toy Story Place â?? larger-than-life bath toys with Woody, Buzz, Jessie and Bullseye, and a splash-pad shoreline built around a 3.9-metre shower-head feature
- Marvel Landing at The Palawan @ Sentosa â?? installations inspired by the Ironcycle Test Run and Groot Galaxy Spin, plus a neon-lit Infinity Bar after sunset

Princesses, cable cars and a monorail makeover

The magic starts before you even reach the island. From early July, the Sentosa Express monorail is dressed with Captain Mickey and Captain Minnie for the ride in from VivoCity. The Singapore Cable Car & Sentosa Line joins in too, with all three stations and the cabins reimagined around themes like Toy Story Place and Disney Discovery Reef.

Over at Sentosa Sensoryscape, the venue becomes a Town Square royal promenade. Look out for 13 princess-themed hammock installations spotlighting Ariel, Belle, Cinderella, Merida, Mulan, Raya, Snow

White and more. Central Beach Bazaar anchors it all with a 3.5-metre Magical Compass showing the seven themed areas.

Stay for the after-dark magic

This is the first time the Southernmost Point of Continental Asia stays open until 10pm. After sunset it becomes a luminous coastal escape inspired by Finding Nemo, The Little Mermaid and Lilo & Stitch, with glowing manta ray installations lighting up the water. A dedicated ticket unlocks a gamified night experience, complete with an activity card and a limited-edition postcard keepsake.

Merchandise, perks and how to plan your visit

There is a summer-style merchandise range too, spanning a tumbler, eco bag, towel and keychain. UOB cardholders can unlock a blind-pack Glow-in-the-Dark Medallion Pin with a minimum spend of $60. Guests sailing on the Disney Adventure between 24 June and 1 October 2026 can also unlock complimentary access to one Sentosa attraction.

Daytime exploration comes with regular island admission, while the Southernmost Point night experience needs its own ticket. For the latest ticket prices, bundles and programming, check the official Sentosa website. Details are accurate at time of writing and subject to change, so confirm before you head down.
