Don Don Donki HarbourFront Centre closing is the biggest Japanese supermarket goodbye of the year. The 24-hour Donki at HarbourFront Centre will pull down the shutters for the final time on 19 July 2026. The closure comes ahead of HarbourFront Centreâ??s redevelopment works, which kick off in the second half of 2026.

From now till 19 July, the store is running a closing down sale with up to 70% off selected products. If you have ever wanted to lobang yourself silly on Japanese snacks, sake or beauty products, this is the window. Queues are already forming at the discount aisles on weekends.

Why Don Don Donki HarbourFront Centre Is Closing

HarbourFront Centreâ??s owner, Mapletree, is preparing the building for a comprehensive redevelopment. Several tenants are clearing out from mid-2026, and Donkiâ??s lease ends 19 July 2026. The HarbourFront Donki first opened in October 2020, so the outlet is shy of completing its six-year run.

It is the second Donki closure in Singapore this year. The Downtown East branch shut its doors on 15 March 2026 after almost five years of operations. With two stores down, Donkiâ??s HarbourFront swansong is a genuine end-of-an-era moment for Southsiders and VivoCity weekenders.

What To Hunt At The Don Don Donki Closing Sale

The closing sale offers up to 70% off across selected categories. Stocks are clearing aisle by aisle, so the smart move is to swing by once a week till mid-July. Expect deeper discounts as the final date approaches.

- Snacks and confectionery â?? KitKat regional flavours, Calbee chips, mochi assortments.
- Beauty and skincare â?? Japanese sunscreens, sheet masks and SK-II minis.
- Sake, shochu and craft beer â?? limited Japanese stock that will not be replenished.
- Kitchenware â?? donabe pots, knives, bento boxes and household gadgets.
- Frozen and chilled â?? wagyu, sashimi-grade fish and Japanese ice cream pints.
