Unspent CDC and SG60 vouchers can go to a charity of your choice until 31 December

Description

Any CDC Vouchers 2026 (January) or SG60 Vouchers still unspent can go to a charity you choose, but only until 31 December 2026 at 11.59pm. After that, both sets expire, and nothing left over can be given away.

Donations run on KampungSpirit, a government-backed platform, and the window opened on 1 October at 10am. Giving is voluntary. KampungSpirit says to spend your vouchers on what you need first, and you can spend some at participating merchants and donate the rest.

Whose Singpass it takes

Only the person who claimed the vouchers can donate them, and only with their own Singpass account. That matters most for CDC Vouchers, which are claimed for the household. If another household member did the claiming, the donation has to come from their login, not yours. Whoever claimed them can donate the householdâ??s vouchers from that one login.

SG60 Vouchers are issued by age group, adults and seniors. Once you have claimed yours, KampungSpirit shows only the SG60 campaign for your age group.

For an older parent who wants to give but finds the steps fiddly, KampungSpiritâ??s advice is to go through them together on their device. They log in with their own Singpass and confirm the donation themselves. Never share Singpass details.

How a donation works

- Go to go.gov.sg/kampungspirit-cdcv and pick a charity with IPC (Institution of a Public Character) status. Category filters and a search bar narrow the list.

- Log in with Singpass, then choose a voucher campaign and a voucher category. Your balance shows beside each.
- Pick the vouchers to give. Each one has a fixed value, such as S$2, S$5 or S$10.
- Tick the declaration boxes, add an email address if you want a confirmation and a tax-deductible receipt from the charity where relevant, and choose whether to donate anonymously.
- Select Donate.

Each donation covers one campaign and one category. To give to another charity, or from your other campaign, use â??Donate againâ?• on the success page. You can make as many donations as your balance allows, to the same charity or different ones.

Donations are final. Once vouchers reach a charity they count as used and cannot be reversed or moved to another one, so check the charityâ??s name before you confirm.

If â??Your donation is being confirmedâ?• appears, do not repeat it, or you could end up giving twice. The message means KampungSpirit is waiting for RedeemSG to confirm the transfer, not that it failed, and most donations confirm within a few minutes. Your Impact page shows the final status.

Tax deductions and privacy

Whether a voucher donation is tax-deductible depends on the charity. Each one decides under its own policy and IRAS rules, and some set a minimum donation, shown in the â??Tax deductionsâ?• section of the charityâ??s page. Gifts that only reach that minimum when added together count only if the charity adds them up, so ask first if the deduction matters to you. IRAS sets the deduction rate and which donations qualify.

Any receipt comes from the charity, not from KampungSpirit. Charities send donation records to IRAS, and a qualifying donation is included in your assessment automatically, in the Year of Assessment 2027 tax bill, without you claiming it.

Ticking â??Make my donation anonymous on KampungSpiritâ?• is off by default. It hides your name from other people on the platform, where the gift appears as â??Anonymousâ?• with the amount instead of your initials, and it does not affect your tax deduction. The charity still receives your Singpass name, NRIC, email address if you gave one, and the amount, because it needs them to assess the deduction and issue any receipt. Your details can also be shared with the Peopleâ??s Association and the Community Development Councils to administer the voucher scheme, for example if you contact them about your donation.

After 31 December

CDC Vouchers 2026 (January) and SG60 Vouchers expire on 31 December 2026. Anything not spent or donated by then cannot be used or donated later. This round replaces the old pledging process: each donor picks a charity for each donation, and the vouchers go to it in full rather than into a shared pool.
