The programme is part of Esplanadeâ??s Songs We Grew Up With series, built around Mandopop classics and live vocals in a casual after-work setting.

Who Is Performing

Elizabeth Low is a singer-songwriter known for deep, soulful vocals and has performed theme songs for Singapore dramas including Hope Afloat and After the Stars.

The short Concourse format works well for listeners who want live music without committing to a full ticketed concert.

Planning Notes

The performance is free, so the useful move is to arrive early if you want a comfortable view. It is also easy to pair with dinner around City Hall, Marina Square or the Esplanade waterfront.
