What the night is

Esplanade bills the show as a stop on the singer's Celebration Tour. The venue synopsis leans on his catalogue, with Release Me still the song most listings lead on, alongside Am I That Easy to Forget, Quando Quando Quando, A Man Without Love and The Last Waltz. Promoters also flag material from his All About Love album, which reworks standards from the Great American Songbook.

Esplanade lists the runtime at about 1 hour 30 minutes with no intermission. Admission is age 6 and above. The performance language is English.
