

FairPrice Durian Buffet 2026: Early-Bird Booking Guide

Description

FairPrice Xtra has opened bookings for Durian Buffet 2026, with 60-minute all-you-can-eat sessions at Parkway Parade from 19 to 21 June and VivoCity from 26 to 28 June. The early-bird offer gives S$20 off a set of two tickets, bringing the pair price to S$150 until 12 June.

This is a useful food-calendar item because it turns durian season into a booked indoor event, with fixed sessions rather than a walk-up stall queue.

What The Ticket Includes

FairPrice names premium varieties including Mao Shan Wang, Black Thorn, King of King, Red Prawn, D24 and D13. Each ticket covers a 60-minute durian spread in air-conditioned FairPrice Xtra settings.

The event is best for durian fans who want variety in one sitting. If you only want a small box, a normal fruit stall or supermarket counter may make more sense.

Booking Notes

Book early if you need a specific venue or weekend slot. Parkway Parade suits east-side readers, while VivoCity is easier for those combining the buffet with HarbourFront or Sentosa plans.
