The Far East Hotels Sentosa Christmas programme kicks off on Thursday, 3 December 2026, with a tree lighting, a three-day craftersâ?? market and a month-long stamp trail across the four hotels in the precinct: The Barracks Hotel Sentosa, Oasia Resort Sentosa, The Outpost Hotel Sentosa and Village Hotel Sentosa.

If you are already planning your year-end outings, this one is open to the public and easy to fit into a Thursday evening on the island. It also pairs well with our guide to things to do in Singapore this weekend.

Christmas stamp trail across all four hotels, 3 December to 3 January

From the evening of 3 December, guests can pick up a postcard at any of the four hotels and collect a unique stamp at each stop. The illustration comes together bit by bit, revealing a complete Christmas scene once all four hotels have been visited. It makes a keepsake, or a personalised festive greeting to send to someone.

The trail runs until 3 January 2027 and is part of a seasonal series, with new postcard designs introduced through the year. Hotel guests who complete it can redeem a reward at their hotel of stay.

Planning your Sentosa Christmas outing

Families heading out during the year-end school holidays have plenty of reasons to make the trip. If you are curious about the precinct itself, we also looked at Oasia Resort Sentosaâ??s Courtyard Premier rooms earlier. Do check with the hotels for any updates to the programme before you go.
