The basement food hall at #B4-03/04, 2 Orchard Turn is aiming for a nostalgia walk rather than a standard atrium fit-out. Stalls are styled like period shopfronts, from barber and bookstore looks to photo studio and salon fronts.

Heritage hawkers in a food hall

Six heritage names are making a food-hall debut. Ming Chung White Lor Mee (93 years) brings Henghua braised noodles. Hillman Restaurant (63 years) adds claypot cooking and paper-wrapped chicken. Wah Eng Beef Noodles (78 years) serves Hainanese dry beef noodles with thick gravy.

Also new to the hall: Hakka Bond Express (57 years), First Street Fried Prawn Noodles (38 years), and Berempah Bros. Live fishball-making returns at LiXin Teochew Fishball Noodles at selected times through the day.

Toast Box adds live coffee roasting and a Nanyang Supremo blend exclusive to this outlet. Returning tenants include Padang Padang, Shou Yi Fried Fritters and Chow Zan Dessert.

Award-winning names in the new line-up include Berempah Bros, founded by MasterChef Singapore Season 2 winner Derek Cheong, plus Michelin-recognised Ah Er Herbal Soup and MP Thai. Sunny Island Bar joins the drink side of the hall.
