How the free Sentosa Line cable car rides work

The Singapore Cable Car Sentosa Line links Sensoryscape, Imbiah Lookout and Siloso Point, so the free morning window doubles as a quick way to hop between different parts of the island. Operator Mount Faber Leisure says the promotion covers the Sentosa Line only.

Which station to start from

Sensoryscape Station sits near Resorts World Sentosa and the Imbiah Sentosa Express stop, which makes it the easiest starting point if you are arriving by train. Imbiah Lookout Station is within reach of SkyHelix Sentosa, Arbora CafÃ© @ Sentosa, SkyLine Luge Singapore and the nature trails around Imbiah Lookout.

Siloso Point Station puts you close to Siloso Beach and Shangri-La Rasa Sentosa, handy for a beach morning or a year-end staycation. If you are already planning a day out, our guide to the Season of Joy hotel bundles at Resorts World Sentosa is a good companion read.

Our take: plan your Sentosa morning around it

The window ends at 11am, so the rides suit early risers and families who want to beat the heat. Ride first, then walk to your next stop. For more Sentosa plans this season, see the BTS THE CITY ARIRANG Run at Sentosa and the Forest Run @ Sentosa 2027.
