FTISLAND is bringing the 2026 FTISLAND TOUR 0 XIX III FaTe to Singapore on 27 June 2026, with the show listed for Arena @ EXPO.

The event window runs from 6pm to 10pm. Tickets are listed as available through BookMyShow from 29 May at noon, so fans should plan around the EXPO location and the ticketing route before show day.

Key Event Details

Singapore EXPO lists the show as open to the public with ticketed admission. The venue is Arena @ EXPO, which means the practical planning is different from an Indoor Stadium show; factor in Expo MRT, meal timing and post-concert crowd flow.

What Fans Should Prepare

The band is known for a live rock sound, so ear comfort, standing time and transport home matter. If you are attending with younger fans, confirm the admission and seating rules on the ticketing platform before checkout.

Arrive early enough for security checks and venue wayfinding. EXPO is straightforward by train, but queues can build quickly around one-time concert entry windows.

If you are buying tickets as a group, decide the budget and preferred section before sales open. That avoids slow checkout decisions when the platform is busy and helps everyone understand whether the priority is price, view or being seated together.

Tickets are listed as available via BookMyShow from 29 May 2026.

After-Show Transport Notes

Expo MRT is the cleanest exit route for most fans. If you are booking a ride, walk away from the immediate venue crowd before requesting pickup.

For groups, agree on a meeting point before entering the hall. Mobile reception can get patchy when everyone exits at once.

If you plan to eat after the concert, check late-night options before the show. The area can feel quiet after big events, so a planned supper stop is easier than deciding only after the crowd disperses.
