Friday, 25 September is Mid-Autumn Festival day. This closing weekend is the last stretch of the 12 to 27 September run, so the lantern map, Craft Corner and Sunday finales sit in one household plan.

Where the lanterns sit

The marketplace at Supertree Grove runs the same 6pm to 10pm window with food, carnival games and rides; charges apply there. Friends of the Gardens members get 10 per cent off marketplace spend and a S$3 discount for every S$30 at J&K Kids Carnival Games.

Craft Corner Fri to Sun

Craft Corner returns at the Colonnade on Friday 25 to Sunday 27 September with self-guided craft activities and festive keepsakes. Fees apply for selected activities. Attraction ticket holders get a 1-for-1 on the standard activity fee; Friends of the Gardens members get 10 per cent off.

Sunday close: Flag Championship and Dragon Dance

On Sunday, 27 September, the Singapore Big Flag Championship runs 1pm to 7.30pm on Supertree Grove Lawn. The festival then closes with a Dragon Dance at 7.30pm on the same lawn.

Wet weather cancels performances. Only battery-operated lanterns are allowed; open flame is banned. Parking is limited, so Bayfront or Gardens by the Bay MRT is the safer arrival.

Flower Dome perk and Borealis timing

Singapore residents' kids aged 12 and under enter Flower Dome free through 27 September (not for organised groups). Accompanying adults pay standard admission. Inside Flower Dome, Lilytopia and family activities continue on various timings to the same end date.
