Geylang International 5-1 Young Lions at Jalan Besar as Eagles stay perfect

Description

default watermark

Young Lions vs Geylang International, Jalan Besar, 19 Sep 2026. Image: Singapore Premier League.

Geylang International beat Young Lions 5-1 at Jalan Besar on Saturday 19 September 2026 to keep a perfect start to the 2026/27 Singapore Premier League season heading into the international break.

Hisatoshi Nishido put the Young Lions ahead inside 11 minutes. Two minutes later Fairuz Fazli turned the ball into his own net, and the Eagles never looked back.

How the game turned

Yang Hyeonju drove Geylang in front in the 22nd minute with a low finish. Dejan Racic made it 3-1 before half-time with an individual run finished in the 38th minute.

Geylang stay perfect after Matchweek 2. Image: Singapore Premier League.

Stoppage time finished the night. Yang scored again in the 90+2nd minute, then substitute Sahil Suhaimi added a fifth in the 90+8th minute after coming on late for Racic.

What it means

Racicâ??s goal took him to 25 SPL goals in 30 appearances. Sahilâ??s finish was his first league goal since May 2025. Nishidoâ??s opener was the Young Lionsâ?? first SPL goal since a 2-2 draw with Geylang on 9 May 2026.

Geylang are now unbeaten in eight games in all competitions against the Young Lions. The last Young Lions win in that run was a 4-2 Singapore Cup result on 26 November 2023. FC Jurong also sit on a perfect start after Matchweek 2, with the league pausing for internationals.

Date Created
22/09/2026
Author
jadeyeo

default watermark