Description

Geylang Serai Cooking Club with Sendok Rakyat takes place on Saturday, 18 July 2026 at Wisma Geylang Serai. The official SG Culture Pass listing describes a three-hour, English-language session from S$30, centred on cooking asam pedas while tracing a family food memory connected to Melaka.

This is the first public programme in a new Geylang Serai Heritage Gallery incubator series. It is not just a general gallery announcement: places, session time and payment should be checked on the live ticket page before you travel.

The official event page does not expose every ticket condition in its summary. Select Get Tickets to see the available session time, remaining places, booking fee if any, refund rules and what materials are included. â??From S$30â?• does not mean every ticket category costs S$30.

What will participants do?

The session is led by Sendok Rakyat, a ground-up Malay food heritage initiative. Its event description centres on Murni and an asam pedas recipe associated with his grandfather and memories of Melaka. The value is therefore part cooking activity, part oral and neighbourhood history.

Do not assume the workshop includes a full meal, a takeaway portion or ingredients for every dietary need unless the checkout page says so. If you have a food allergy, mobility need or religious dietary question, contact the organiser before buying because the public summary does not provide those details.

Can you use SG Culture Pass credits?

The specific Cooking Club event is listed on the official SG Culture Pass website, so it is presented as eligible for Culture Pass purchase through the authorised ticket route. Complete the transaction from that listing and check the payment breakdown before confirming.

- Use the eventâ??s own Get Tickets route rather than an unverified resale link.
- Check whether credits cover the full ticket and any booking fee.
- Read the ticketing partnerâ??s cancellation and refund terms.
- Keep the ticket, confirmation email and meeting instructions.

The organisers have announced more incubator concepts, but their dates and ticket pages are being released progressively. Do not assume every future session is Culture Pass-eligible until its own official listing confirms that status.

What else is planned in the incubator series?

Programme material supplied to Little Big Red Dot names three further concepts: scent storytelling with Aroma Nostalgia, illustrating memory with HAFI, and aural tradition with Bani Haykal. These are useful watchlist items, not confirmed bookings.

Announced concept	What remains to be confirmed
Scent storytelling with Aroma Nostalgia	Date, price, capacity and ticket link
Illustrating memory with HAFI	Date, materials, age guidance and ticket link
Aural tradition with Bani Haykal	Date, format, language and ticket link

Plan your visit to Wisma Geylang Serai

1. Check the ticket page on the morning of the event for changes and the exact start time.
2. Travel to 1 Engku Aman Turn; the official OnePA listing identifies Paya Lebar MRT and nearby bus services.
3. Reach the Heritage Gallery 10â??15 minutes before the stated start.
4. Bring your booking confirmation and follow any ingredient, clothing or accessibility instructions sent by the organiser.
5. Allow the full three hours rather than treating this as a short drop-in gallery visit.

The Geylang Serai Heritage Gallery documents the areaâ??s history through archives, objects and residentsâ?? memories. Its usual public access can be restricted during weekday school hours, so do not apply general gallery hours to a separately ticketed event.
