How to Get the Best Deals at Giant

Check the weekly catalogue online. Giant publishes its weekly promotions on its website and app. Before you head to the store, browse the digital catalogue to identify the best deals and plan your shopping list accordingly. This saves time and helps you avoid impulse purchases.

Use the Giant app. The Giant mobile app often features additional digital-exclusive coupons and e-vouchers that you can redeem at checkout. Download it and log in before your shopping trip to access extra savings on top of the in-store promotions.

Shop early in the week. The most popular promotional items – especially fresh produce and buy-one-get-one offers – tend to sell out quickly. Shopping on Thursday or Friday (23–24 April) gives you the best chance of finding full stock.

Combine with credit card offers. Some credit cards offer additional cashback or rebates at supermarkets. Cards like the OCBC 365 and UOB One offer cashback on grocery spending at Giant and other supermarkets. Check your card's current promotions before shopping.
