Guardianâ??s own promo art frames the cut around beauty favourites. Health, beauty and personal-care lines are the usual pool for this mechanic; eligibility sits on the live product cards and till rules.

What you actually pay

You pay the tagged price on the first item and $0.10 on the second qualifying item. That is only a real discount if both products were already going into the basket. A $0.10 second buy on something you do not need is still a spend.

Terms and stock limits apply. The short window ends Sunday 20 September 2026 across Guardian stores, Guardian Online and the Guardian app.
