Hallmark Moving Out Sale – Key Details

What's on Sale

The sale covers Hallmark's full range of premium home textiles, including:

Why Hallmark?

Hallmark is a well-established Singapore brand known for its premium-quality bedding and home textiles. Their products are a popular choice for homeowners seeking hotel-quality comfort at home, and youâ??ll often find Hallmark linens in mid-to-upper tier Singapore hotels.

At clearance pricing, this is a rare opportunity to get hotel-grade bedding for your home at a fraction of the usual cost. The Haus De Linen Neosilk Quilt at $59 (down from up to $219) is particularly extraordinary value â?? Neosilk fabric is a premium alternative to down filling, offering excellent temperature regulation and hypoallergenic properties.

Tips for Shopping the Sale

Go today or tomorrow if possible. With only days left, the most popular sizes and items will disappear first. Donâ??t wait until the last day expecting to find full stock â?? the clearance will accelerate as the 30 April deadline approaches.

Check sizing before you go. For bed sets and quilts, know your bed size (single, queen, or king) before heading down. Having the measurements ready helps you pick the right product quickly without wasting time.

Buy more than one if you find a great item. At these prices, buying an extra set of pillowcases or a spare quilt makes financial sense. Guest bedrooms, childrenâ??s rooms, and storing a set for future use are all valid reasons to buy in multiples.

Bring cash or card. Both payment methods are typically accepted at outlet sales. Check for any additional credit card promotions that might stack with the in-store discounts.
