Disclaimer, I am a vegetarian. But some of my family members wanted to have dinner here as the salad bar is â??one of the best in Singaporeâ?•.

Salad bar? I can take a good salad bar. Anyway I ordered a set meal but I did not eat the meat.

The Triple Cheese Hamburg Steak set looks a lot different from what was displayed on the poster thoughâ?¦

When we arrived, the dinner crowd had not filled the place. Over time this place got crowded. We visited on a Sunday evening.

Now this is the salad bar. There is a huge array of sauces. I think one can get full just on the salad bar alone.

This really is the one of the best salad bars in Singapore. My only gripe is that the place is not the cleanest. The tables were oily when we arrived. The salad bar area could do with a little cleaning up too. Oh and they do not take reservations. Apparently. So you have to queue. Location? 72 Peck Seah St, Singapore 079329.
