

Hitcheed Wedding Wonderland At Suntec: Last-Day Guide For Couples

Description

Hitcheed Wedding Wonderland x Bridal Market runs at Suntec Singapore on 16 and 17 May 2026, giving couples one more day to compare wedding vendors, bridal looks and event packages in the same hall. The event is listed for 12pm to 8pm at Level 4, Hall 405.

The useful part is density. Hitcheed says the showcase brings together more than 80 wedding professionals, so couples can handle photography, gowns, styling, venues and planning conversations without stretching the search across several weekends.

The Bridal Market element includes gown try-ons for couples planning outfits.

What To Prioritise On The Last Day

Start with the big decisions that usually need face-to-face comparison: venue packages, bridal studios, photography style and actual gown fit. If you are early in the planning journey, use the fair to shortlist rather than commit under pressure.

Couples who already have a date should bring their preferred month, estimated guest count and rough budget. Those three details make vendor conversations sharper and help you compare real packages instead of glossy headline prices.

Hitched's official page shows wedding showcase set-ups for the event.

How To Plan The Visit

Go earlier if you want calmer gown try-ons and better appointment slots with popular vendors. If you arrive later, focus on vendors you have pre-checked rather than walking every booth.

Suntec is connected to Esplanade and Promenade MRT, and Level 4 can get crowded when several conventions overlap, so build in time for lifts, queues and a quick meal break.
