Seven IKEA Singapore home items carry IKEA Family prices that end on 30 November 2026, or while stock lasts. Six of them began on 1 November. The seventh, a childrenâ??s easel set, has been at its member price since 1 October. They are a mirror, a wardrobe frame, a block-out blind, a duvet set, a chair pad, a childâ??s chair cover and the easel set.

The seven prices

- VIPPÃ?RT chair pad in beige, 38 cm: S$9.90, against a regular S$11.90.
- GREJSIMOJS cover for a childâ??s chair in pink faux fur: S$12.90, against S$24.90.
- SOLFÃ GEL three-piece easel and accessories set: S$14.90, against S$19.90.
- Ã?NGSNEJLIKA duvet cover with two pillowcases, 200Ã?200/50Ã?80 cm: S$29.90, against S$39.90.
- TRETUR block-out roller blind in white, 140Ã?195 cm: S$69.90, against S$89.
- PINGSTSYREN mirror in light yellow-beige, 60Ã?120 cm: S$119, against S$149.
- LASTARE frame with doors in white, 80x62x200 cm: S$150, against S$190.

All seven stop on the same date, so nothing here needs watching for an earlier cut-off, even the easel carried over from the October batch.

What the member price depends on

IKEA Family membership is free and open to Singapore residents aged 18 and above with a Singapore mobile number. Each person holds one card, and the card is not transferable.

The price is not automatic at the till. IKEA awards it only where a card, temporary card or digital card is presented at the cashier during payment and before the purchase is recorded. Online, the member number goes in at the payment step. The same condition covers the restaurant and the Swedish Food Market.

What the price does not include

LASTARE is a storage frame rather than a finished wardrobe. Knobs, handles and lighting are sold separately. The DRAGSMARK clip-on handle for it is S$5.90 for two pieces. TRETUR takes a RIKTIG draw rod, sold separately, for a window out of reach.

Most of the seven are priced by size, so the figure above belongs to one measurement. PINGSTSYREN also comes in 60Ã?80 cm. Ã?NGSNEJLIKA also comes in 150Ã?200/50Ã?80 cm and 240Ã?220/50Ã?80 cm. LASTARE comes in six sizes in white, from 40x42x200 cm to 80x62x200 cm. TRETUR runs from 60Ã?195 cm to the 140Ã?195 cm above, and IKEA prices each size separately on the product entry.

GREJSIMOJS is a cover alone. It fits the MAMMUT childrenâ??s chair, which IKEA sells at S$19.90. The fabric is 100 per cent polyester, at least 90 per cent of it recycled, and the cover is machine washable at 30Â°C. SOLFÃ GEL carries a palette and a spatula, with room under the lid for acrylic paints, a canvas pad and brushes.

Getting it home

Parcel delivery is S$10 for an order up to 15kg, and S$20 for anything over 16kg up to 25kg. Home delivery is S$35. Where there is no lift access, or an item will not fit in the lift from the third floor upwards, a flat S$20 applies on top, and IKEA applies that charge up to the fifth floor only.

IKEA delivers to mainland Singapore and Sentosa Island. Parcel orders arrive within three to five working days, and home delivery dates can typically be booked within seven working days.
