Both phones sit in Apple's first-wave markets. Pre-orders open at 8pm SGT on 12 September 2026, matching the 5am PT Saturday window Apple set for more than 65 countries and regions that include Singapore. Retail availability starts on 18 September.

Singapore price and finishes

On apple.com/sg, iPhone 18 Pro starts at S$1,899 for 256GB. iPhone 18 Pro Max starts at S$2,099 for 256GB. Storage climbs through 512GB, 1TB and 2TB on both models.

The Pro pair comes in four finishes: black, silver, glacier and burgundy. That is the full colour set listed for Singapore as well as Apple's global launch sheet.

What changed on the Pro models

A20 Pro is Apple's first 2-nanometre iPhone chip. It sits against a next-generation vapour chamber that Apple says lifts sustained performance by up to 40 per cent over iPhone 17 Pro.

The 48MP Fusion main camera adds variable aperture for the first time on iPhone, opening as wide as $f/1.48$ in low light. The Dynamic Island is smaller and can show up to three Live Activities at once. Both models ship with iOS 27.

Apple also confirmed its first foldable, iPhone Duo, for a later October window.

Pre-orders and availability

Singapore pre-orders begin at 8pm SGT on 12 September 2026 on the Apple Store. Availability begins on 18 September.
