What Apple put on the foldable

Opened, Duo uses a 7.6-inch inner Super Retina XDR display with a nano-texture finish. Closed, a 5.4-inch outer display covers about 90 per cent of the screen area of iPhone 18 Pro in a passport-sized body. Both panels share the same aspect ratio, with ProMotion, Always On and peak outdoor brightness of 3,000 nits.

A20 Pro, built on a 2-nanometre process, powers the handset with a custom vapour chamber and a dual-battery design. The chassis is grade 5 titanium in a polished finish. iOS 27 is adapted for open and closed use; Apple Pencil with USB-C support arrives later in 2026.
