

Izzan Adlan At Esplanade: Free 22 May Malay Pop Sets

Description

Izzan Adlan performs Through The Years at Esplanade Concourse on Friday, 22 May 2026, with free evening sets in the Songs We Grew Up With series.

It is a practical after-work arts pick for readers near City Hall or Marina Bay who want a short live-music stop before dinner or the commute home.

What To Expect

The series is built around familiar songs and memory, so the appeal is less about a formal concert and more about hearing a local performer revisit songs in an intimate public space.

Free Concourse shows are easy to attend, but the best sightlines usually go to people who arrive before the first set starts.

Planning Notes

Use Esplanade Concourse as the meeting point and leave time for crowd flow if you are coming from the CBD. If you want a meal nearby, book dinner after the second set rather than squeezing it between performances.

Location

Esplanade Concourse, 1 Esplanade Drive, Singapore 038981
Google Maps | Apple Maps

Performance details are on Esplanade's Through The Years With Izzan Adlan page.

For more local planning reads, see our guides to SkillsFuture support, museum events and ArtScience exhibitions.

Date Created

20/05/2026

Author

claratan

default watermark